Of course you can *find* Web pages by searching Google, but are you aware that searching is just a small fraction of what Google can do?

This interactive hands-on session will guide you through many features that will help organize your life! Explore All About Google, Google Labs, Communicate, show and share data using the Calendar, Blogger, Docs, Groups, Orkut, Picassa, Knol, YouTube and more!

Use the Google search box as a calculator, dictionary, phone book, stock ticker, and street map to name just a few. Students will search special features for who links to what page, mail-order catalogs, government sites, university pages, and others.

Visit Google Labs and new features such as Google Reader, Google Scholar and Google Docs and Google Wave which is coming out soon! Come to this interactive hands-on workshop and learn to Google Like a Goo-Ru!
