* This workshop will be followed by Open Forum – Teen Programs: An Afternoon of Information Sharing (1:30 pm – 3:30 pm) moderated by Kimberly Paone with other teen services librarian panels, including Saleena Davidson, South Brunswick Public Library and Allen McGinley, Piscataway Public Library. Please stay for this free-of-charge program to share ideas and resources for the successful teen services at your library! Lunch will be provided for the forum participants! The flyer for this Open Forum will be posted through our listserv and website soon!

This workshop will focus on practical advice for providing successful teen services in the library. Interesting and inexpensive programming, tips for keeping teens involved, and sure-fire survival strategies will be included.

About the Presenter: Kimberly Paone is the Supervisor of Branch Libraries/Teen Services at the Elizabeth Public Library. She has been working closely with teenagers in the library for nearly ten years.
