Got Great ideas for Successful Teen Programs? Want to know what other libraries are doing?

Come, listen and participate in the Open Forum to talk about teen programs and share great program ideas and information. This forum will be moderated by Kimberly Paone with other teen services librarian panels, including Saleena Davidson, South Brunswick Public Library and Allen McGinley, Piscataway Public Library.

This will be a free-of-charge program to share ideas and resources for the successful teen services at your library! Lunch will be provided for the forum participants!

* Prior to this open forum, Kimberly Paone will present "Successful Teen Services" workshop from 10:00 am – 12:30 pm at the Rahway Public Library.

Kimberly Paone is the Supervisor of Branch Libraries/Teen Services at the Elizabeth Public Library. She has been working closely with teenagers in the library for nearly ten years.

Kimberly will also moderate the open forum in the afternoon.
