

FREE WEBINAR: HOW TO KEEP UP WITH (ALMOST) EVERYTHING

Led by Buffy J. Hamilton

Wednesday, February 17, 2010

5:00 pm – 6:00 pm (1 CEU hour)

This is a free webinar for those who serve teens and kids. While the primary audience for this webinar is School Media Specialists, content will have applicability for all, and all are welcome to join! Registration is Required!

Information Overload?
Another New Tool or Technology Every day?
Feel like you can't keep up?

Image: www.flickr.com/photos/branimir/ / CC BY-NC-SA 2.0

Then mark your calendars for this webinar!!

Buffy J. Hamilton media specialist/teacher-librarian at Creekview High School in Canton, Georgia will share her practical and reality-based tips on how to keep up with, filter, track and manage all of the new tools and information that is flowing forth on a daily basis. While this presentation might not help you keep up with EVERYTHING, it will help you manage to keep up with what matters...

About our presenter: Buffy J. Hamilton is a media specialist/teacher-librarian at Creekview High School in Canton, Georgia; She is in her 18th year as an educator in the Cherokee County School District. Buffy holds a master's degree in English Education (2003) from the University of Georgia, and an Ed.S. in School Library Media/Instructional Technology from the University of Georgia (2005). Buffy is a frequent presenter on school media, social media, and technology issues. She blogs at: <http://theunquietlibrarian.wordpress.com>, as well as for ALALearning.

IMPORTANT!

Please consult <http://rlcwebinars.pbworks.com> for handouts (if there is any) and instructions on preparing your computer and logging in to the webinar, prior to the event.

To register,
call the office at 732-752-7720/866-505-5465,
or, go to: http://www.infolink.org/services/education_and_training

